

I am commenting on the CBA's challenge to the Indiana Telephone Privacy act. Since our attorney General has been enforcing this law, ours and I sure many of my fellow Hoosiers have been thankful for not having the interruptions of our private lives by telemarketers. Junk mail provides plenty of marketing opportunities for those who would bombard us with pleas for applications, "bargains" etc.

David D Killebrew